
John & Ami

Hello!

We would like to thank you for taking the time to get to know us! We know how difficult this decision must be and we admire your courage and your strength. We have always dreamed of having a family of our own, however we struggled with infertility and are unable to have children.

Our promise to you...

- Is to love your child unconditionally, to give them a loving, stable, and fun filled home.
- Your child's life will be filled with lots of happiness, laughter, and amazing adventures.
- We will be involved parents who will protect, support, and provide for your child.
- We will ensure they have an excellent education.
- We will always honor you, speak highly of you, and tell them about your strength.

Our Story...

We met through EHarmony and talked for hours on end before our first date! Since then, we have been inseparable.

We have an incredible love for each other, and are best friends.

We were married in June 2016, surrounded by our loving family and close friends.

We are a laidback, caring, and fun-loving couple who enjoy camping, traveling, and just spending time together. We love getting together with our family and friends for BBQ's, holiday parties, and going to theme parks for the day!

You & Me

John about Ami...

Ami is the love of my life! She is caring to a fault, always putting everyone else's needs before her own. She loves to plan our adventures in life. Ami is loving, nurturing, and would make an amazing mother!

Love

John swept me off my feet and still continues to do so! He is a very loving, patient, and giving man who always makes sure that our family is taken care of. He is the love of my life and all my friends say I won the "husband" lottery with him!!!!

St. Paddy's
Day Fun!!

I am a person who loves life! After graduating college in 2006, I accepted my first job in the legal field. For the first 9 years I worked with at risk youth. For the last 3 years I have been an investigator with the state. When I am not working, I am usually cooking, baking, crafting, and spending time with my friends and family. I enjoy boating, camping, and shopping. I have two adorable nieces that I love to spoil and spend time with them. They can't wait to have a cousin to play with and go on family vacations.

John...

A night at the beach!

I started my career in the construction industry after high school. I quickly went from being a framer to leading my own crew. I went on to get my contractors license to further advance my career. Currently I am a superintendent for a national home builder. I like working with my hands and doing things around the house. When I am not working, you can usually find me outside or relaxing on the couch.

I love to camp, go boating, and enjoy a round of golf on occasion. I played soccer and baseball while in grade school and was on the football and wrestling teams in high school.

Letters from Yia Yia & Papa...

As a grandparent, I can't wait to see my third grandchild. To be able to hold you, feed you, change your diapers, & observe your little mind at work. When you become a toddler, your YiaYia & I will babysit, go for walks in the stroller, & play in the park. As you get older we can go to the movies, shopping, have sleepovers, watch tv, learn your ABC's, read books, & go to Disney parks. I can't wait to see your 1st day of school & be able to help you with your homework. After high school & college graduation, we will watch you start a family of your own. When we become great grandparents, we will start all over again with your children.

Love, Papa

There is a special connection between a grandparent and grandchild. In my eyes you will always be special because you were given to me by God and your loving, selfless birth mother. I will always be grateful to her for giving me the opportunity to be a part of your life. I can hardly contain my excitement & happiness knowing I will have another grandchild. I can't wait to hold you, kiss you, & love you. I want you to know, I will always cherish you & love you unconditionally. I can't wait to a part of your life, always supporting & encouraging you to be the best you can be. You will see my eyes light up when you are with me. We can play games, read books, do crafts, go bowling, tell stories, or just chill. We will have playdates & sleepovers. If you have a problem you can always talk to me & we can work it out together to solve it. The important thing is the time we will spend together & the bond that will exist. I won't wait until you start school to help you learn to read & write, because I love playing teacher. Sometimes you can be the teacher & I can be the student. I will be there for your outside interests, always cheering you on. Never forget, "I will always be here for you precious child!" Love, YiaYia

Letter from Grandma...

A letter to my first grandchild,

I cannot wait until your arrival! You see our family will not be complete without you. I promise to always be here for you, supporting and encouraging you in all you do. Your Aunt Ann is special, full of love, guidance, energy, and support. Between the two of us we have lots and lots of love and memories to share with you.

I'm sorry your grandfather is not with us, but all of us will share his life with you and the love and dreams he had for our family!

Love, Grandma

Our Hobby...

One of our hobbies was creating our own centerpieces for our wedding!

What an ADVENTURE!

Thank you...

for taking the time to get to know us! We hope that you will have a better understanding of us and what type of life we will be able to provide for your child.

We also hope that you find peace and comfort with your decision knowing how much your baby will be loved by not only John and I, but also our family and friends!
